FEATURE on
OLIVIA FRANCES CULPO

OLIVIA CULPO (born 8th May, 1992) is an American fashion influencer, social media personality, actress....and cellist!

Culpo attended St. Mary Academy – Bay View and later, Boston University, but did not graduate. She began studying the cello in her second grade, and played in the Rhode Island Philharmonic Youth Orchestra, the Rhode Island Philharmonic Chamber Ensemble, the Bay View Orchestra, and the Rhode Island All-State Orchestra. She attended the Brevard Music Center, in Brevard, North Carolina for two summers, and has performed with the Boston Accompanietta.

However, at 20 years old her life definitely makes a big change! After winning the 2012 Miss Rhode Island USA competition on the first pageant she had ever entered, she went on to win the Miss USA pageant on June 3rd, 2012. Culpo therefore represented the United States at the 2012 Miss Universe pageant that was held on December 19th, 2012, in Las Vegas, Nevada – and she ALSO won that competition!

Soon after, Culpo became a big social media personality, gaining a significant following on Twitter, Instagram and YouTube, and has partnered and collaborated with several beauty and fashion brands like L'Oréal, Kipling, and Uberliss as an influencer. Culpo was also featured in the Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Issue, and appeared on the cover of the 2020 issue alongside Jasmine Sanders and Kate Bock. She is now a familiar face on television and the big screen.

(great personality, and she even plays the cello live!)

Her participation in films so far include:

2014 The Other Woman

2017 American Satan

2018 I Feel Pretty

2020 The Swing of Things

2021 Venus as a Boy

But she DOES NOT forget the cello

She said it!:

“I grew up in a family of musicians. My dad is a trumpet player, my mom plays the viola in the Boston Pops and all of my siblings also play instruments. I play the cello, and I find it so therapeutic – it’s almost like a meditation. It’s hard to find time to play with my schedule (and the instrument being so hard to travel with!), but I like to sneak in some playing whenever I can.”

Bravo to Olivier!!

‘documenting the cello’ www.johnstone-music.com

Please do see other original works for many different instruments and groupings, and also special transcriptions for cellists, and cellists with other instruments on the Johnstone-Music web page

Also both general musical and cello based articles, directories of famous historical cellists, and many other items of interest

DOWNLOADS - Many downloads on Johnstone-Music are now available, for those that are interested, at a symbolic payment, which is to help cover the costs of this web site. Some scores/parts are presented in musical edition programmes but generally they are found here in a most “clear” hand-written manuscript copy (the majority to almost a professional copyist standard) and transferred to a PDF file.

As far as Johnstone-Music is concerned you are welcome to publicly perform or record any work or piece found in the web; however you DO need to make mention of the name of the composer and the arranger on any printed information (hand programmes, disc covers etc.).

FREE PUBLICITY - If you care to inform us of any public performance (no matter how formal or informal the event is), recording or other uses of the original music or arrangements of David Johnstone or of other musical colleagues included in this web, we are happy to give your event free publicity on the Johnstone-Music web.

To take advantage of this, try to write to us three weeks or more in advance with any information. Last-minute entries are certainly better than not writing at all - however, understandably, once we have past the calendar month of the event it is not usually possible to add old items to the calendar. It is very interesting for the promoters of Johnstone-Music to have knowledge of your activity - and so in return for your information you will be entitled to a free gift of a work/s for every diary addition you tell us about. To find out more about this, please visit the “Cello Club” section in the web!
